CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER

MARK ATTANASIO

The 2008 season is Mark Attanasio's fourth as Chairman and Principal Owner of the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club. Attanasio has continued to work with team executives and staff to improve the Club's performance in the four areas he has emphasized since his group purchased the team:

1. FIELDING A PERENNIALLY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio has worked closely with Executive Vice President and General Manager Doug Melvin, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Gord Ash and Vice President-Special Assistant to the General Manager for Player Personnel Jack Zduriencik to make significant improvements on the field. The team remained in playoff contention until the final weekend of the 2007 season; NL home run king Prince Fielder and NL Rookie of the Year Ryan Braun had banner seasons and the minor league system had 32 players selected as All-Stars along with a combined .565 winning percentage. Several key additions were made during the 2007-08 off-season, better positioning the team for a post-season run.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

Building on last season's club record of over 2.8 million people through the turnstiles, the Brewers have made investments that will continue to enhance the fan experience both at Miller Park and in the media in 2008. Attanasio has worked with Executive Vice Presidents Rick Schlesinger and Bob Quinn to make a number of additions at Miller Park, including a new flagship team store for merchandise at the Home Plate Gate, a comprehensive renovation of the renamed Metavante Club (formerly known as the .300 Club) and the new Associated Bank Kids Zone located along the first-base side of the Field Level.

Among the media enhancements will be more games and ancillary programming on FSN Wisconsin and WMLW, additional camera and video-replay capabilities and more sideline reporting before, during and after games. The highly visited brewers.com continues to add content, such as more frequent blogs and online chats with players, TV announcers, and team officials. Also, the Club will continue to hold annual tributes, including Cerveceros Day and Negro Leagues Tribute Day.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

Attanasio is committed to the expansion of community outreach by the Brewers during the coming season. The Club will double the number of Brewers Block Parties, in which thousands of fans have an opportunity to mingle with players in neighborhoods surrounding Miller Park. The SCORE Program (with its core character principles of School, Community, Opportunities, Role Models and Excellence) will now include a curriculum developed in conjunction with educational specialists to teach elementary school children about these principles. Additionally, the Club is working on a new initiative that will seek to deliver the latest in physical education to Milwaukee-area youth through technology and a hands-on curriculum.

In partnership with the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, the team will once again offer a two-day course entitled Brewers Baseball Basics for Women. The course gives women background about the game of baseball, the history of the Brewers and an inside look at Miller Park. Guest lecturers include front office personnel, Brewers' manager, players and their wives as well as female Brewers executives.

In December 2007, the Brewers became the first Major League team to sponsor a plane trip to the Negro Leagues Museum in Kansas City, when two Brewers players (Bill Hall and Rickie Weeks) accompanied area little leaguers to learn more about this important era in baseball history.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Under Attanasio's direction, the Brewers have promoted from within and recruited additional executives and staff in baseball operations and on the business side-scouts, customer service representatives, minor league instructors, marketing executives and others-in order to meet the goal of making the Brewers the best-run ballclub possible. These investments in human resources have been complimented by investments in facilities, infrastructure and back office systems.

In addition to his role as Chairman and Principal Owner, Attanasio oversees the Leveraged Finance group at The TCW Group, Inc. He also serves on the board of this Los Angeles-based investment management firm with approximately $150 billion under management.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards, including Heal the Bay (an environmental group aimed at preserving the Pacific coastline), the Cedars-Sinai Medical Center Sports Spectacular (providing funding and leadership in the study of juvenile diseases), United Way of Greater Milwaukee, The Greater Milwaukee Committee, Harvard-Westlake School and the President's Leadership Council of Brown University. Last May, Attanasio delivered the commencement speech at Cardinal Stritch University.

Attanasio also is an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University in 1979 and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law in 1982.

Mark and his wife Debbie have two sons.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - BUSINESS OPERATIONS

RICK SCHLESINGER

Rick Schlesinger is in his sixth season with the Brewers, having been named Executive Vice President-Business Operations on December 12, 2002. Schlesinger oversees the Club's business affairs, including sponsorships, marketing, ticket sales, guest services, public relations, community relations, broadcasting and communications.

Since Schlesinger joined the Brewers, attendance has increased 69%, from 1.7 million in 2003 (25th in MLB) to the franchise record of over 2.8 million (12th in MLB) achieved during the 2007 season. During this same period, season ticket sales have more than doubled and the Club's television ratings have increased by more than three hundred percent.

Under Schlesinger's guidance, the Club has enhanced the fan experience at Miller Park with the construction of the Brewers and Braves themed party suites, the Mercedes-Benz Field Haus and the Gehl Club. This season, other additions to the fan experience at Miller Park are a new retail store located at the Home Plate Gate, renovations of the Metavante Club (formerly known as The 300 Club) and a new children's play area (the Associated Bank KidZone) in the right-field concourse. Metavante and Associated Bank are two of the more than 50 new sponsors that have partnered with the Brewers since Schlesinger's arrival.

Over the past five years, the Brewers' fan experience has received honors from both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. This year, the Brewers were recognized as one of the top Major League Baseball teams in the Turnkey Team Brand Index, which rates the brand strength of professional sports franchises. Out of 122 Major League franchises surveyed, the Brewers earned a ranking of 37th. In addition, in the two most recent SI.com "Fan Value Index" surveys, the Brewers achieved top marks for the entire Miller Park experience as voted on by media and fans.

Under Schlesinger's leadership, the Brewers have significantly expanded their reach into the community. Central to these efforts has been the creation of initiatives such as the S.C.O.R.E. program (a school program and curriculum that focuses on character education) and the Brewers Block Parties (carnival-style events that take place in multiple locations throughout Southeastern Wisconsin). He also started annual games honoring the Negro Leagues and Hispanics in Baseball (Cerveceros Day).

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schlesinger served as the Vice President, Business and Legal Affairs/Assistant General Manager for the Anaheim Angels from 1998-2002 after coming to Anaheim Sports, Inc. (ASI) from Walt Disney Pictures and Television. Schlesinger handled all contract and legal matters for ASI, the Angels, and the NHL's Mighty Ducks, and worked on all contractual and arbitration issues for the baseball club.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (Cum Laude) in 1986. After graduating from Harvard, Schlesinger spent six years at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins before joining Disney.

Active in the community, Schlesinger serves on the board of the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Wisconsin and is a member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee that contributes to the cultural and economic base of the Milwaukee Metropolitan area. He also has served on multiple boards as part of annual United Way fundraising campaigns.

Schlesinger is a native of Bayside, Wisconsin. He and his wife, Diane, reside in River Hills, Wisconsin with their daughter, Caitlin, sons Bradley and Sam, and two dogs, Roxy and Scout.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

BOB QUINN

Bob Quinn, a multi-disciplined business operations executive with over 18 years of experience in professional baseball and public accounting, is in his sixth season with the Brewers.

He joined the Brewers on January 3, 2003 as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer before being promoted to Executive Vice President-Finance and Administration on July 19, 2007. A fourth generation baseball executive, Quinn oversees the financial operations of the Brewers as well as human resources, information systems, Miller Park operations, Arizona spring training operations and business administration.

Quinn plays a lead role in creating the annual and long-range business and financial plan for the Brewers that has allowed the team to stay competitive on the field and allows the Brewers to continuously enhance the fan experience at Miller Park. He was also instrumental in the creation of new fan enhancements at Miller Park, including state-of-the-art entertainment areas in the Gehl Club and Mercedes-Benz Field Haus as well as significant changes in game entertainment, ticket packages and promotions.

In 2007, the Brewers enjoyed success both on and off of the field. Under Quinn's leadership, the team established an attendance increase of 23% from 2006 to 2007, best in the majors. At nearly 2.87 million, the Brewers also broke their all-time attendance record in 2007.

Quinn also initiated a "Trading Places" initiative at Miller Park in 2007, where team management worked on the frontlines as concession workers, parking attendants, ticket takers, ushers and ballpark maintenance workers to sample the experience from the perspective of both event staff and fans.

Prior to coming to Milwaukee, Quinn spent nine years with the San Francisco Giants from 1994-2002, last serving as Vice President of Finance. He served in many capacities and contributed in all areas of the business throughout his tenure. He also played an instrumental role in the private financing and construction of AT&T Park.

Quinn graduated from Marquette University in 1990 with a degree in accounting and worked for the public accounting firm Price Waterhouse in Milwaukee and San Francisco before joining the Giants.

In addition to his accomplishments, Quinn continues a family legacy and influence in professional baseball, and in professional sports, as a member of one of the game's most celebrated multi-generational families. Covering over 275 combined years of experience, tradition and dedication to professional sports and professional baseball, Quinn comes from a long line of front office sports executives. His father, Robert E. Quinn, was general manager for the San Francisco Giants, New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds (including the 1990 World Champions). Quinn's grandfather, John Quinn, was general manager of the Boston and Milwaukee Braves (including the 1957 World Champions) and of the Philadelphia Phillies. His great grandfather, J.A. Quinn, was general manager for the St. Louis Browns, Brooklyn Dodgers, Boston Red Sox and Boston Braves and served as the first curator of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York.

In January 2007, Quinn was honored with the Young Alumnus Award, conferred through the College of Business Administration of Marquette University. In 2005, he was named to The Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list, a prestigious honor bestowed upon those who demonstrate leadership and accomplishments in their profession and community.

Quinn serves as Vice President and Treasurer of Brewers Charities, Inc., which provides financial and other support for youth recreation, scholarships and education throughout Wisconsin. He is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and serves as a mentor to college students in the area.

Quinn plays lead guitar in the band "Roshambo," which played at Milwaukee's Summerfest in 2007, the world's largest music festival.

Quinn is a native of Cleveland, Ohio, and resides in Brookfield, Wisconsin, with his wife Amy and their two daughters, Carolyn and Katie.

S.C.O.R.E. EDUCATION PROGRAM S.C.O.R.E is the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club's youth education and recreation initiative. The program focuses on School, Community, Opportunities, Role models and Excellence, using the acronym S.C.O.R.E.

They speak to students about the importance of school and community: taking advantage of opportunities, seeking positive role models and striving for excellence in education. Key to the presentation is the use of five baseballs in interactive exchanges with students. Each ball is designed with one of the S.C.O.R.E. character messages printed on the side. During the program, the players engage children in a dialogue about the importance of these five important elements. It is a fun program that opens communication between the children and their role models. In addition, all students participating in the program receive t-shirts and bookmarks to remember the day.

S.C.O.R.E. WITH CHARACTER In 2007, the Milwaukee Brewers teamed up with School Specialty and its Premier product line to develop a 24-page S.C.O.R.E. with Character agenda supplement. The supplement is supported by teacher and parent resources. It starts with the Brewers core message and includes classroom, home and community activities built around 15-key character traits. The S.C.O.R.E. with Character agenda supplement is flexible. It can be done in a few months, or over a year. The entire effort is targeted at positively impacting student behavior and student character development.

Supplements are offered to schools now. To help drive student interest in the program, the Brewers will donate a family four-pack of game tickets to participating schools to be used as a student reward. WIVES IN THE COMMUNITY Brewers players' wives play an important role in community outreach efforts with their commitment to several important causes. Each summer, our wives host a tailgate party to benefit Sojourner Truth House, a shelter for battered women and children. The Brewers' players and their wives make appearances at schools, before youth groups, and hospitals. Some of the players and their wives also purchase game tickets and food vouchers for kids, or provide direct financial support for youth groups.

YOUTH BASEBALL CLINICS Each summer, hundreds of youngsters gather at local parks to learn the finer points of baseball. Players and coaches donate their time to help kids develop proper techniques of hitting, pitching, fielding and base running. The instruction is invaluable with an additional emphasis on sportsmanship and goal setting.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

DOUG MELVIN

Doug Melvin was named Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Milwaukee Brewers on September 26, 2002. He is the eighth general manager in Brewers history.

Melvin has dramatically overhauled the Brewers' roster during his time as general manager, helping to turn the franchise into a competitive club. In 2007, the team posted its first winning record since 1992 as they went 83-79 and finished just 2.0 games behind the Cubs in the National League Central Division. This past offseason, Brewers acquisitions included Mike Cameron, Eric Gagne, Jason Kendall, David Riske and Salomon Torres.

Melvin also continues to oversee one of the strongest minor league programs in baseball. The program has developed a number of players under his tenure that have contributed greatly to the Major League team. Ryan Braun, selected in the first round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft, was named 2007 National League Rookie of the Year. Prince Fielder, selected in the first round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft, finished third in the 2007 National League MVP voting as he belted 50 home runs.

In 2003, Melvin made the biggest trade of the offseason as he acquired six players, all of which experienced Major League action during the 2004 season, in a deal with the Arizona Diamondbacks for first baseman Richie Sexson.

In his first season with the Brewers, Melvin's first move was to claim Scott Podsednik off waivers. Podsednik had a fantastic rookie season, earning second place in the 2003 National League Rookie of the Year Award balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Melvin also picked up pitchers Dan Kolb and Doug Davis from the minor league release lists. Kolb became an All-Star in 2004 and Davis was one of the most consistent starting pitchers in the National League in 2004.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Melvin, 55, was the successful general manager of the Texas Rangers from 1996-2001. He helped the Rangers earn their first postseason appearance ever in 1996. Under his direction, the Rangers won the American League West three times. He was hired in Texas by President George W. Bush and the current United States Ambassador to Japan, Tom Schieffer.

Highly decorated, Melvin was named Major League Executive of the Year by Baseball America in 1998. He also earned that award from The Sporting News in 1996 and was named American League Executive of the Year by Baseball America that same year. He was elected to the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

As a player, Melvin pitched for six seasons in the minor leagues for the Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Yankees, posting a 29-19 record with a 3.43 ERA. He was signed by Pittsburgh in 1972 and pitched two years before being released. After sitting out in 1974 with a leg injury, he was signed by the Yankees by Pat Gillick and played four more years.

The Chatham, Ontario native was inducted into the city's Sports Hall of Fame in September 2000. He played football, basketball and hockey at Chatham Kent Secondary School and was selected to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. He still holds the school's basketball record with 55 points in one game. MILWAUKEE BREWERS

MASCOTS

Perhaps as much a part of Milwaukee's rich baseball history as the players, Bernie Brewer has become a symbol of what's good about being a fan of the Brewers.

As the official mascot of the Brewers, Bernie Brewer entertains fans young and old from his dugout located in the left-field bleachers.

THE HISTORY OF BERNIE BREWER

The concept of a team mascot first emerged back in 1970 when the expansion team needed to draw more fans to the ballpark. That season, the original "Bernie Brewer," 69-year-old Milt Mason, camped out in a trailer atop the scoreboard in late June, vowing not to come down until a crowd of at least 40,000 attended a game. On August 16, a bat day crowd of 44,387 showed up to bring their adopted hero down from his perch.

The demand for Bernie Brewer grew, and by 1973 he emerged as a character who cheered on the home team from a beer-barreled chalet. He would slide down from his perch into a beer stein following each Brewers home run and victory. Bernie Brewer became a fixture at home games through the Brewers' powerful years, when home runs came with regularity for teams known as "Bambi's Bombers" and "Harvey's Wallbangers."

In 1984, the Brewers rebuilt the bleachers, replacing Bernie's Chalet with a sound tower, sending the mascot into temporary retirement. In 1993, by popular demand, Bernie made a triumphant return and has been a fixture at every home game since.

RACING SAUSAGES

Legend has it that the Famous Klement's Racing Sausages started to take shape in the early 90s. In their formative years, they were little more than a cartoon running a virtual race every home game on the giant scoreboard in center field at County Stadium.

As the movement began to take shape and a buzz developed about our racing weenies, eventually the Bratwurst (#1), Polish (#2) and Italian (#3) made their debuts out of the left-field corner of County Stadium on selected Sundays throughout the season. What started as a fun way to entertain many of the children attending afternoon games became an instant hit. The three sausages added a fourth when Hot Dog (#4) came on board in the middle of the 1990s.

The race grew in popularity among young and old alike. During the 2000 season -- the final year of County Stadium -- the virtual race was thrown out and the actual sausages began to race every game.

This tradition continued as the Brewers moved across the parking lot to Miller Park in 2001. Running with the Sausages took on a life of its own as having an 'in' with the club might mean the chance to dive into the costume and scurry along the warning track prior to the seventh inning. Hideo Nomo, Pat Meares and Geoff Jenkins are just three of the lucky players to boast "Racing Sausage" among their personal accolades.

In 2007, Chorizo (#5) permanently joined the Racing Sausages after a one-game debut in 2006.

Miller Park has consistently been rated by fans and media as one of the top facilities in Major League Baseball. In 2005, the Brewers were recognized by SI.com as the best fan value in all of Major League Baseball in their "Fan Value Index" poll. In 2006, ratings were turned over to the fans, and Miller Park again achieved high marks by placing in the top four ballparks in all of Major League Baseball.

One of the keys to Miller Park's popularity is that it is a dynamic facility that has adapted to changing fan tastes in its seven seasons. This year, the renovated "Metavante Club" (formerly the .300 Club) will open its door to fans. In addition, the new Associated Bank Kids Zone will make its debut in the right-field corner of the field level. The 8,000 square foot area will feature various interactive activities for kids. Brewers apparel is hotter than ever and in response to that, the Brewers are building another Team Store at Miller Park that will open in 2008. The 3,100 square foot store will be located at the Home Plate Gate and will be open during all Brewers home games.

Last year, the all inclusive, upscale "Gehl Club" opened to rave reviews, giving fans another unique option to enjoying Miller Park. Other enhancements include new LED boards that circle the seating bowl, the new Mercedes-Benz Field Haus seating area behind the right-field wall and themed party suites that are a tribute the 1982 A.L. Champion Milwaukee Brewers and 1957 World Series Champion Milwaukee Braves.

With these enhancements, it is hard to believe that Miller Park is only seven years old. April 6, 2001 is a day that the people of Wisconsin and fans of Major League Baseball will remember for many years to come. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning.

On the day, President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the state of Wisconsin. He, along with Baseball Commissioner, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first balls prior to the game. This was just the first of many wonderful events that have already taken place in the Brewers new home.

Miller Park has drawn nearly 16,000,000 visitors in its first seven seasons, including 2,869,144 for Brewers baseball in 2007, shattering the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance. Last season the ballpark sold out 31 times, also setting a team record.

In its inaugural season, Miller Park was not only the home to Brewers baseball. While the team was away, the park played host to a pair of major concerts, the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the band N'Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers themselves.

That was just the beginning. The Brewers continued to make Miller Park the home for a wide variety of events in 2002. The ballpark hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Milwaukee's third

All-Star contest and its first since 1975. Additionally, Miller Park accommodated a University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee baseball doubleheader in April and continues to occasionally host Panther baseball home games.

In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band to Miller Park for the first time for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. The ballpark has also hosted the filming of the motion picture "Mr. 3000," starring Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett, The Miller Lite Masters Professional Bowlers Association Finals and one of the midwest's largest youth chess tournaments.

"A casual atmosphere, good eats and cheap tickets – what's not to like?"
– Paul Forrester, SI.com

In August 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its namesake, the Miller Brewing Company. A mini-village was built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a capacity crowd.

With an economic impact (according to the Greater Milwaukee Convention and Visitors Bureau) of $416 million in its first year alone, Miller Park is a significant cog in the resurgence of Milwaukee as a tourist destination. Along with the Calatrava wing of the Milwaukee Art Museum, the Midwest Airlines Convention Center, Milwaukee Public Market and the Harley Davidson Museum (opening 2008), Miller Park has helped put Milwaukee on the map as a place to visit any time of the year.

Here's just a sampling of what others are saying about one of baseball's newest jewels:

"There's no comparison. This is an awesome building and a great place to play. You miss County Stadium, but when you see this, you forget about it real quick. It's like you're outside. It doesn't have that closed-in feeling like most domes do. They brought the outside in, so it's awesome." - Jim Gantner

"Oh, boy is that beautiful. This is one of the greatest ballparks in the country. Some dome stadiums feel like you're in someone's living room. But this, people will fall in love with it." - United States Senator Russell Feingold.

"I truly wanted to put the uniform back on and play again." - Hall of Famer Robin Yount on his first impressions of Miller Park.

MILLER PARK WALK OF FAME

The Miller Park Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee Brewers baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside of Miller Park near the statues of Robin Yount and Henry Aaron. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 15 inductees going into the 2008 season. The first class of Walk-of-Famers in 2001 included Henry Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount. In 2002, Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Cecil Cooper joined the prestigious ranks. In 2003, legendary Brewers radio voice Bob Uecker and former G.M. Harry Dalton joined the Walk of Fame. In 2004, Jim Gantner and Gorman Thomas took their place on the Walk of Fame and in 2005, Harvey Kuenn and Don Money were honored.

HELFAER FIELD WISCONSIN'S PREMIER YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility.

Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, Helfaer Field was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and was a part of the team that built beautiful Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their championship games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six feet high with the exception of left field where the wall is nine feet.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974 and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Children from the three Brewers primary youth baseball leagues were on hand in August 2001 to turn the dirt at the groundbreaking ceremony. The Little Brewers League, Girls of Summer Softball League and the Brewers RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner-City) are the three avenues the Brewers offer children from ages 6-17 to play softball and baseball in Wisconsin with over 3,000 taking part statewide. Helfaer Field opened on May 31, 2002 and has been used by hundreds of teams and thousands of children since its inception.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers home game dates, there will be up to six time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers home dates, there will be up to three time slots at two hours each and is available for tailgate functions up to three hours prior to game days.

For more information on Helfaer Field reservations check out the club's website at brewers.com or call our Helfaer Field Coordinator at (414) 902-4888.

HELFAER FIELD SUNDAYS

Beginning in May, the Milwaukee Brewers will again offer fans a free chance to enjoy Helfaer Field. NASHVILLE SOUNDS

Pacific Coast League (AAA) • American North Division • 2007 Final Record: 89-55 (.618)

FRANK KREMBLAS MANAGER

Frank Kremblas returns for his fourth season as manager at Nashville and his ninth season in the Brewers farm system. Kremblas, who has led Nashville to three straight division titles, was named 2007 Pacific Coast League Manager of the Year after going 89-55 (.618).

Kremblas holds an overall record of 240-192 (.556) with the Sounds. He made history in his first season as skipper, guiding the team to the 2005 PCL Championship, an accomplishment no other Nashville manager had achieved.

Prior to joining Nashville, Kremblas managed Double-A Huntsville from 2002-04 and was recognized by his peers as the "Best Managerial Prospect" in the Southern League in a 2004 Baseball America poll. In 2003, he led Huntsville to the Southern League Championship Series and was named Southern League Manager of the Year. With Huntsville, Kremblas led the Stars to three consecutive winning seasons with a 216-201 overall record.

In 2001, Kremblas managed at Class-A High Desert, where he went 71-69 and led the Mavericks to the second round of the California League playoffs. In 2000, he led Class-A Mudville to a 35-35 record after he assumed the managerial role following the All-Star break.

Kremblas managed in the Montreal Expos farm system from 1998-99, first with the team's Gulf Coast League affiliate and then at Class-A Cape Fear, where he led the squad to the South Atlantic Championship Series following a 75-65 record.

In ten seasons as a minor league manager, Kremblas owns an overall record of 588-532 (.525).

Selected by Cincinnati out of Eastern Kentucky University in 1989, Kremblas played eight seasons in the minor leagues. His playing career ended with Triple-A Louisville in 1996.

Frank resides in Seymour, Tennessee.

STAN KYLES PITCHING COACH

Stan Kyles is in his fourth season as pitching coach at Nashville and his eighth season in the Brewers organization. This season marks his fifth straight as pitching coach at the Triple-A level (Indianapolis, 2004).

In 2007, the Sounds pitching staff led the Pacific Coast League with a 3.57 ERA and set a new club record with a league-best 1,148 strikeouts.

Prior to his role at Nashville, Kyles served as the pitching coach at Double-A Huntsville from 2002-03. He led the staff to a Southern League-best 3.17 ERA in 2003. Kyles originally joined the Brewers as the pitching coach at Class-A High Desert in 2001.

Kyles' previous coaching experience came in the farm systems of Chicago-NL (1992-93, 97-00) and Colorado (1994-96). His first coaching position came in 1991 as the pitching coach with Bend of the independent Western League.

Selected in the fourth round of the 1979 June Draft by Chicago-NL, Kyles logged 11 seasons in the minor leagues before retiring after the 1989 season. He went 52-56 with a 3.86 ERA during his career.

Kyles, his wife, Monica, and son, Marcus, reside in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

HARRY SPILMAN COACH

Harry Spilman enters his second season as a coach in the Brewers organization with Triple-A Nashville.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Spilman spent two years (2005-06) in the Astros organization as hitting coach at Triple-A Round Rock. From 2000-04, he spent parts of five seasons on the Major League staff with Houston as hitting coach. The 2001 Astros led the National League in batting average (.271) and finished second in the league in runs (847).

The Albany, Georgia native first worked as a coach in the Houston organization in 1998 and spent much of the summer of 1999 at the big-league level when hitting coach Tom McCraw was sidelined with health complications. Spilman previously served seven years as a minor league manager and roving hitting instructor for the Cleveland Indians.

The former first baseman had a 12-year Major League playing career with Cincinnati (1978-81), Houston (1981-85, 88-89), Detroit (1986) and San Francisco (1986-88).

Spilman was originally signed by Cincinnati as an amateur free agent in 1974 after being named All-State in baseball from 1973-74 at the Terrell Academy in Dawson, Georgia.

His father, Harry Sr., was a catcher in the Dodgers farm system. His father-in-law, Harley Grossman, was a pitcher for the 1952 Washington Senators.

Spilman and his wife, Kim, have two children, Kelly and Ryan. The family resides in Mount Vernon, Indiana.

JEFF PAXSON ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Paxson, who was recognized as the 2007 Pacific Coast League Trainer of the Year, begins his fourth season as Nashville's trainer and his sixth consecutive season as the trainer at the Triple-A level. Paxson has been a trainer in the Brewers organization since 1994.

Previously, Paxson served as the team trainer with Beloit (1994-97), Ogden (1998), Stockton (1999), Mudville (2000), Arizona Brewers (2001-02) and Indianapolis (2003). He has been honored on three occasions as his league's Trainer of the Year (Pacific Coast League in 2007, Midwest League in 1997 and California League in 2000).

Paxson graduated from Northeast Missouri State with a degree in exercise science and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist. He lives in Roanoke, Indiana.

TOM REYNOLDS STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Tom Reynolds enters his third season with the Brewers and his first as the strength and conditioning coach with the Nashville Sounds.

Reynolds served in the same role during the 2007 season with the Huntsville Stars and in 2006 with the West Virginia Power.

Reynolds earned a bachelor's degree in movement science and sports and leisure studies with a concentration in health and fitness from Westfield State College (MA).

NASHVILLE SOUNDS 2007 REVIEW

Nashville earned their third consecutive American North Division title after finishing the year at 89-55, best in the Pacific Coast League. The Sounds' 89 wins ranked as the team's second-highest in a single season since 1978.

The Sounds used a steady combination of power, stellar defense and dominant pitching all season long. Nashville pitchers led the PCL with a 3.57 ERA, including 11 shutouts, and set a new franchise mark with 1,148 total strikeouts. RHP R.A. Dickey tallied a league-high 13 wins on his way to earning PCL Pitcher of the Year honors. LHP Adam Pettyjohn also proved to be a dominant starter, going 12-4 alongside a 3.87 ERA in 17 starts. Dickey and Pettyjohn were each named to the PCL Postseason All-Star Team.

LHP Manny Parra etched his name into the PCL record books when he hurled a perfect game on 7/25 in the Sounds' 3-0 win at Round Rock. He recorded a career-best 11 strikeouts in that outing and became only the third player in the league's 104-year history to throw a 9-inning perfect game.

OF Laynce Nix recorded 24 home runs and 74 RBI, leading the team in both categories. INF/OF Joe Dillon hit .317 along with 20 home runs before he was called up to Milwaukee on 7/31. C Vinny Rottino and RHP Steve Bray were both Midseason All-Star selections and Frank Kremblas was recognized as the PCL Manager of the Year.

The Sounds fell, three games to one, to New Orleans in the first round of the Pacific Coast League playoffs.

Milwaukee Brewers (1978-1993)
The "ball-in-glove" logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest which was open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An Art History student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

Milwaukee Brewers (1994-1999)
As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee's industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

Milwaukee Brewers (2000-Present)
The current logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classy yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the Brewers name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS

ALL-TIME ROSTER

The Milwaukee Brewers have had 631 players who have worn their colors since 1970. In addition, there have been 30 players who played for the Brewers' forefathers, the Seattle Pilots, in 1969, but not for the Brewers. A total of 661 players have appeared in at least one game for the franchise.

RETIRED NUMBERS

HANK AARON

Born: 2/5/34 in Mobile, AL
Position: Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1954-65, 75-76

"Hammerin' Hank" had his number retired after the conclusion of the 1976 season. Aaron played in Milwaukee from 1954-65 with the Braves and from 1975-76 with the Brewers. He was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982 after closing out his career with a Major League-record 755 home runs. Aaron was the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957, the year the Braves won the World Series. He hit 40 or more home runs in eight seasons, drove in 100 or more runs 16 times and had a .305 lifetime batting average.

ROLLIE FINGERS

Born: 8/25/46 in Steubenville, OH
Position: Pitcher
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1981-85

The man who made the handlebar mustache famous had his number "34" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on August 9, 1992. Fingers, who was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1992, spent five seasons in a Brewers uniform. He made his mark on the baseball world as the game's first relief ace. Fingers won both the American League Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards in 1981, the first pitcher to accomplish the feat since Oakland's Vida Blue in 1971.

ROBIN YOUNT

Born: 9/16/55 in Danville, IL
Position: Shortstop/Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1974-93

"The Kid" had his number "19" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on May 29, 1994. Yount played his entire 20-year career with the Brewers after breaking into the big leagues at the tender age of 18. He won American League Most Valuable Player awards in 1982 and 1989, becoming the third player in Major League history to capture MVP honors at two different positions (Stan Musial/Hank Greenberg). Yount, who collected 3,142 career hits, was the first player to enter the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Brewer after being inducted on July 25, 1999.

PAUL MOLITOR

Born: 8/22/56 in St. Paul, MN
Position: Infield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1978-92

"The Ignitor" had his number "4" retired in ceremonies at County Stadium on July 11, 1999. During his speech prior to the game against the Minnesota Twins, Molitor said that should he be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, he would be honored to enter as a Milwaukee Brewer. Molitor followed through with that commitment as he became the second Brewer to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2004. Molitor's career in Milwaukee spanned 15 seasons and was highlighted by the 1982 World Series and a 39-game hitting streak in 1987.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Born: 1/31/19 in Cairo, GA
Position: Second Base
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in the Majors: 1947-56

The man who broke baseball's color barrier in 1947 as a Brooklyn Dodger had his number "42" retired by Major League Baseball in 1997. The Brewers honored Robinson in special pre-game ceremonies at County Stadium on July 18, 1997. Pitcher Scott Karl (1995-99) was the last Brewer to wear the number.

BOB UECKER

Born: 1/26/35 in Milwaukee, WI
Position: Catcher/Broadcaster
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1971-present

"Mr. Baseball" had his name placed among the Brewers retired numbers at Miller Park in a ceremony on August 26, 2005. The ceremony commemorated Uecker's 50th year in baseball. Although Uecker never played for the Brewers, he did play six seasons in the majors for the Milwaukee Braves, Philadelphia Phillies, Atlanta Braves and St. Louis Cardinals before retiring in 1967. Former Brewers owner and current Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig hired Uecker as an announcer in 1971, a position he has held ever since.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE EAST DIVISION SERIES - MILWAUKEE vs. NEW YORK

For the first time in Major League history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League East Division, New York, winners of the first half, confronted Milwaukee, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time that the Yankees participated in the postseason, while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best-of-five series, three games to two, and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. The Yankees lost to the National League Champion Los Angeles Dodgers, four games to two, in the 78th World Series.

RADIO ANNOUNCERS

BOB UECKER

Entering his 38th year behind the mic as a Major League Baseball broadcaster for his hometown team calling play-by-play on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network, Bob Uecker will celebrate his 53rd year in professional baseball in 2008.

Uecker earned the 2003 Ford C. Frick Award and will forever be recognized in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. On July 27, 2003, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame induction history as he left his audience, including former President George H. Bush, in tears from laughter.

In 2003, Uecker also joined former Brewers general manager, Harry Dalton, as a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, located near home plate outside of Miller Park. He and Dalton joined Robin Yount, Paul Molitor, Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, Jim Gantner, Gorman Thomas and Cecil Cooper in receiving this special honor.

Affectionately known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker has completed 27 seasons as the club's number one announcer. Uecker is highly respected in the industry, having been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001, where he joined such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles.

Uecker has been named Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

His big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, which would alter Uecker's life forever. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked Uecker to come on stage. Hirt was so impressed, he arranged an appearance for Uecker on the "Tonight Show," starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on the Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin shows, Late Night with David Letterman and as a guest host on Saturday Night Live.

Uecker became a national celebrity and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on "The Superstars" and "The Midnight Special," which opened the door for more high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, Uecker launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere," which put 122 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars." He was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller. Uecker was cast as a radio announcer in the film "Major League," which was filmed at County Stadium, and the sequel, "Major League II."

His experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained Uecker national recognition as he went on to serve as play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and the World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the Major Leagues, Bob authored a book entitled "Catcher In the Wry," a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. His philanthropic efforts benefit several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease and is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism. He also chairs the popular Bob Uecker Celebrity Fishing Tournament for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of assistance.

JIM POWELL

Jim Powell begins his 13th season as a member of the Brewers broadcast team, partnering with Bob Uecker longer than anyone in the Hall of Famer's illustrious career. A highly regarded presence behind the mic, Powell joined the Brewers in 1996 and was named the 1998 Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year. He is a three-time recipient of the Sportscaster of the Year Award in South Carolina, having earned the award in 1990 and 1991 and again in 1995.

During the winter months, Jim has served as host of "Talkin' Brewers," the hot-stove league show heard across the Brewers Radio Network since 1997. Powell has been a significant contributor of features and analysis online on select websites on the internet, including Brewers.com and JSOnline.com. In 2007 he began an in-game chat with fans online during weekly game broadcasts.

In addition to his duties on the Brewers Radio Network, Powell has logged some time as a member of the Brewers television team, calling the action during the 1999 and 2000 seasons.

Powell began his Major League broadcasting career with the Minnesota Twins in a reserve role in 1993 and 1994. Prior to this, he accumulated extensive experience at the minor-league level, serving as play-by-play announcer for the Charlotte Knights (1990-91, 1995) and the Columbia Mets (1987-89, 1993-94). Powell has also dabbled at the collegiate level, taking on play-by-play duties for the University of South Carolina baseball program in 1989 and 1994 as well as the University of Georgia baseball team in 1985 and 1986.

Before going into baseball full-time, Powell had received national exposure through play-by-play for CBS Radio for several college football games, including the 1997 Sun Bowl. MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to Arizona for their 11th spring training at beautiful Maryvale Baseball Park. Considered to be one of the premiere spring complexes, the Brewers are in the midst of a 15-year lease through 2012 which has helped to revitalize the Maryvale neighborhood.

The facility, which opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as 1,000 lawn seats. The complex features eight fields, including two half-fields. The Brewers minor-league players also train at the Maryvale complex across the parking lot from the Major League facility.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this exceptional complex a reality. With Maricopa County, the Maryvale County Stadium District and the city of Phoenix providing resources, Maryvale Baseball Park is the foundation for future neighborhood development. The Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department oversees the complex's operations.

The primary architect of the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix, AZ. Their work at Maryvale led to several awards in 1998, including the Architecture Accessiblilty Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues, the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.
